

Anglo-Japanese International Symposium

"Human Development, Restoration and Social Development since WWII"

Discussion will focus on the business, cultural, military and political ties between Japan and the UK , and the gains which can be reaped from these.

Political ties: New Japanese regime of Prime Minister Hatoyama compared with old regime and Japanese hopes for the future.

Military ties: Leadership during the war

Cultural ties: Difference of the image that Japanese and British people have of each other.

Economy: Comparison of present and past recessions.

The audience is to be made up of British and Japanese residents, with an opportunity for both groups to voice opinions on topics.

Entrance Fee: Adult £ 7.00 (Free for under 12's)

Organised by the Burma Campaign Society

Sponsored by Japan-UK 150, The Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation

WHEN

October 17th, 2009 11:00 AM through 5:00 PM

LOCATION

St Ethelburga's Centre for Reconciliation and Peace
78 Bishopsgate, London , EC2N 4AG , United Kingdom

CONTACT

Phone: 07737 094 804 / 07972 071 366

Email: info@burmacampaignsociety.org

The Symposium will be followed by networking session with wonderful entertainment as follows.

Japanese Taiko (Drum) by Ms Alice Kemp-Welch

Japanese Flute (Shakuhachi) and Koto by Mr Michael Coxall and Keiko Kitamura

Japanese Tsugaru-Shamisen (String Instrument) by Rodrigo Montoya

Nakada Corus Group and Solo Singer

Piano & Violin Performance by Young Talented Children